<h1>Main Idea</h1>	 Score: In this activity, you will get to read a passage and determine which sentence most clearly describes the main idea. Click and drag the sentence that you think is the main idea to the empty spot in the hamburger where the meat goes. If you choose the correct one, your hamburger will be complete and you will get points. If you choose a different sentence, no meat will appear and you will lose points. You only get one chance with each passage, so you should try to get the right sentence on the first try.
